Georgia Hospital Health Services Endorses American Healthcare Solutions
April 28, 2008

It has recently been announced that Georgia Hospital and Health Services (GHHS) has endorsed American Healthcare Solutions as a vendor partner. GHHS evaluated AHS' proprietary SHARP Staffing tool and found it to be an unparalleled productivity program. This service assists hospitals to gain control of labor costs, identify organizational efficiency problems and learn to effectively staff to demand.

Bill Wylie, Director of GHHS Program Services, commented further on the selection process, "Georgia Hospital and Health Services, Inc., the shared services subsidiary of GHA, strives to locate companies that offer products and services that could be a strategic benefit to our members. We have extensive due-diligence process to ensure that we partner with companies that are of high quality and which adhere to the strategic plan of GHA. We are pleased to have American Healthcare Solutions as one of our limited number vendor partners."

The members of the Georgia Hospital Association, through this co-marketing agreement, will be provided with a meaningful approach to assist their members in the establishment of measurable performance standards within their organizations. SHARP Staffing ensures organizations are able to maximize and manage their productivity through real-time measurements and achieve operational targets which are established by the organization. This approach, in addition to being very adaptable within the organization, is essential in this ever-changing dynamic environment of delivering quality healthcare.

The endorsement of American Healthcare Solutions to work with Georgia Hospital Health Services is an exciting opportunity for both organizations, according to Jan Jennings, President and CEO of AHS.

Mr. Wylie added, "We anticipate that AHS' SHARP Staffing will be a valuable addition to the GHHS portfolio of products and services."
